The Pillar of Light

ILLUSTRATED BY HEYER

This Charming Romance by Louis Tracy, author of The Wings of the Morning, Will Begin in Our Next Issue

The story deals with the wreck of a liner whose passengers are confined for days in a lighthouse while a terrific storm rages outside. There are two beautiful girls among the party for whom Cupid, undismayed by the fury of the gale, finds lovers, furnishing the reader two love stories of the most romantic character

Praised by the Press

"The Pillar of Light" is a captivating yarn, just the thing for summer reading.
—San Francisco Chronicle.

"The Pillar of Light" is a "bully good" story with a readable quality which will appeal to the average person. —Brooklyn Life.

Louis Tracy proved himself capable of splendid invention in "The Wings of the Morning," and in "The Pillar of Light" he weaves equally original incidents of peril into the fabric of his narrative. —Chicago Record-Herald.

"The Pillar of Light" shines steadily and alluringly amid rows of commonplace fiction. —Boston Herald.

A Kitchen Hint.

When frying ham or pork or any food that is apt to spatter a few newspapers spread around the stove will prevent the tiny but mischievous grease spots that sink into the wood and are so very difficult to remove.
Newspapers tacked to the wall at the back of the range and spread around on the floor before commencing to blacken the stove will catch all the dust and black lead.

Advice on Buying Beef.

Fine, well fed beef is distinguished by the bright red color of the lean, which should be marbled with fat, by the pinkish whiteness of the fat, and the meat being firm and white.

When beef is lean, the flesh dark colored and the fat yellow it is not good. Old meat has a streak of horn running between the fat and lean of the sirloin and ribs.

Bacon—A mosquito's buzzing apparatus is a delicate piece of machinery.

Egbert—But it is the kind of machinery I don't like to hear hum.— Yonkers Statesman.

CONDENSED STORIES.

What Happened to a Bad Man When He Found the Judge.

Colonel Bill Zevely of Muskogee while in Washington not long ago told this story of Judge Stewart of South McAlester, which is the next town down the road from Muskegee in the Indian Territory: A ferocious person came into South McAlester some time ago and disturbed the public peace by an-

"I SENTENCE YOU TO JAIL FOR SIX MONTHS," SAID THE JUDGE.

nouncing that he was a wolf, that he came from the headwaters of Bitter creek and that this was his night to howl. He emphasized this sentiment by firing a pistol several times and was promptly put in the calaboose. Next morning he was brought before Judge Stewart, and the case was heard.

"I fine you $50 for being a wolf, $50 for being from the headwaters of Bitter creek and $50 because it was your night to howl," said the Judge.

"All right, judge," the bad man replied slyly. "I've got that amount right here in my jeans."

"I also sentence you to jail for six months," continued the judge.
"Have you got that in your jeans too?"—New York World.

Farm Canneries.

Fruit growers and farmers in Georgia are preparing to operate canneries and dryers of their own, according to an exchange. Convenience to the fields is one strong argument in favor of it.

Mr. Edison says:

"I want to see a Phonograph in every American home."

HERE IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY

An opportunity open to all reliable, responsible parties. You have music and entertainment and want to make your home more cheerful, be sure to read every word of this great offer.

FREE TRIAL of the Superb Edison Home Phonograph outfit No. 7 in your own home.

SIMPLY ORDER the outfit, take it to your home and play the stirring waltzes, two-steps, marches, old-fashioned hymns and other religious music, vocal solos and other beautiful Edison gold moulded records, and if then, you do not care to keep the outfit simply return it at our expense and we charge you nothing for the trial.

Your only obligations with us are to take the outfit from the express office promptly, paying the transportation charges, and to make payment or return the outfit promptly after free trial. We make this remarkably liberal offer to all responsible reliable people, because we know that not one out of one hundred returns the outfit after free trial.

This superb outfit is the kind usually chosen by those willing to pay for the best. Exactly as illustrated above.
Base of cabinet last inches, horn over two feet long, one dozen genuine Edison gold moulded records and one dozen genuine Edison blanks for making your own records. Price $88.70 after free trial; or if you prefer you can pay for it at lowest cash prices on easy monthly payments.

This Edison outfit No. 7 will prove the kind of entertainers in the home for old and young, far better than a piano or organ costing 3 to 10 times as much.
While we will be glad to send free Catalog, showing other Edison outfits costing from $14.20 upward, we recommend in the highest terms this Edison Outfit No. 7.

WRITE TODAY In ordering state what kind of records you want, whether comic, religious, vocal or instrumental, or some of every kind and we will make you up our best selection. In ordering, please give assurances of reliabil-
